International Missions - meeting Sunday, July 10th at 6pm. Pastor Myron has been in contact will the International Mission Board receiving instructions for establishing a mission strategy. This is for all who feel led to participate in International Missions, to participate in the development of a mission strategy. As this strategy is developed, a presentation will be made to the church to share our vision for reaching the world with the Gospel of Christ.

95 children registered with an average attendance of 75. More than 50% came every night
THANK YOU!

There were so many helpers it would be dangerous to try and list them but you all know what you contributed.

Pray that the seed was planted, watered and will harvest new souls!

What could you learn from a group of people with over 220 year's experience? Come to Sunday school and find out! You'll get a blessing! Classes for all ages!
