In August!

All across America CIA (Children in Action) groups are collecting items for select North American missionaries.

Our Wednesday night CIA group has decided to help the Appalachian Regional Ministry.

ARM is a Cooperative Program ministry of twelve Southern Baptist State Conventions in the ARM region in partnership with the North American Mission Board and the Woman's Missionary Union.

Purpose

Appalachian Regional Ministry is an intentional mission's response to the spiritual and physical needs of persons living in the Appalachian region to mobilize Southern Baptists and their resources to provide ministries, to evangelize the lost, to assist existing churches and to start new churches in the multi-state region of Appalachia.

Our items will be sent to Dewey and Kathie Aiken, who serve as missionaries with the ARM in Brevard, NC. The Aiken's minister in six of the twelve states served by the ARM. They work with churches and ministry centers to help provide people in Appalachia with school supplies for their children. Their ministry also includes sharing Christ with them and helping them with other needs.

A collection box is located outside the pastor's office. Please bring these items by September 11, 2011. If you should have any questions, please contact Mary Jo Lumley.
